Dear Sirs,

With regards to Patent No. 6,543,073, we have faxed on August 20, 2010 an Assertion of Small Entity Status along with the a Maintenance Fee Transmittal Form for the renewal of the patent at 7.5 years to the USPTO Office of Petitions and Receipts Accounting Division (see Document A). This same procedure has been conducted by us for various other patents several times before to the effect of a successful entity status change and renewal. However, we received from USPTO Office of Petitions a notice stating that "our request for acceptance of a fee deficiency submission under 37 CFR 1.28 is hereby NOT ACCEPTED" (see Document B). We do not understand the reason behind this notice, as our renewal payment was not "a fee deficiency submission," and moreover, the official data from your website already records the successful payment of the 8th year maintenance fee in Small Entity as well as a successful renewal (see Doc. C). This would lead us to believe that the entity status change and renewal have been successful on both accounts.

Therefore, we would really appreciate it if you could kindly explain for us the significance of the Notice in question (Document A).

Sincerely Yours,

Chris Chen

Dear Sirs,

Please be informed that the owner of patent no. 6543073 has changed from the status of a large entity to a small entity. Please find the relevant assertion for this entity change in accompaniment with this letter.

The second maintenance fee for a small entity is also paid in respect of this patent along with this entity change.

Your kind attention will be highly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Chris Chen
